Young man, we don't want to discourage you, but it is estimated that more than 99 per cent of all the poetry written on the changing season is never published. If you would save all the paper you write poetry on, and sell it to the old rag man at 2c a pound you would soon have enough money to buy an ulster with.

This has been a harvest year for the wool growers of Humboldt. One fortunate sheep-owner told us his experience the other day. He had concluded to sell his fall clip for 19 cents; but happening to go to the postoffice, which is a good many miles distant from his home, discovered by the San Francisco Bulletin's market report that he had better not do it. That newspaper saved him three cents a pound, and he will not forget it.—Humboldt Signal.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

Notwithstanding the fact that thousands of our people are at present worrying themselves almost to death over this vexatious question, even to the extent of neglecting their business, there are still thousands upon thousands of smart, hard working, intelligent men pointing into the great Arkansas Valley, the Garden of the West, where the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad offers them their choice of 2,500,000 acres of the finest farming lands in the world at almost their own prices. If you do not believe it, write to the undersigned, who will tell you where you can get a cheap land exploring ticket, and how, at a moderate expense, you can see for yourself and be convinced.
